

Large Crowd Attends Corner-stone Laying

There was a large crowd of interested people out Tuesday evening to attend the ceremonies in conjunction with the laying of the corner-stone of Grayling's beautiful new postoffice building.

At the appointed hour those taking part in the program stood at the entrance of the edifice, with the American Legion drum and bugle corps on the street in front participating. T. W. Hanson was the chairman for the occasion. Rev. Edgar Flory gave the invocation following which Mayor George Burke welcomed the assemblage and among other things said that the erection of this building meant another great milestone in the life of this community. Mrs. C. G. Clippert and her choir, with the crowd joining in, sang "America." Chairman Hanson in turn called on Mr. H. Roy Whittaker, construction engineer for the U. S. Treasury department, and T. N. Bogardus, superintendent for the James I. Barnes Construction Co., of Culver, Ind., each who spoke a few kind words in behalf of Grayling people and the new building.

Postmaster James McDonnell was next called upon and he told how he and his clerks, Farnum Matson, Carl Dorroh, and Jerome Kessler, had gone about it to ask the Postoffice department for a new building and the work of looking up and compiling records, which were necessary at the time application was made. He publicly thanked them for their efforts. One of the big things that, he said, helped to get the new building was the fact that the Hanson State military reservation was located here.

Rev. Edgar Flory, in a few well chosen words enthusiastically told what he believed the new building meant to the community. Mr. Hanson then gave a short resume of times during the early logging and lumbering days saying that the Village was incorporated forty years ago. He said much progress had been made since then and Grayling had made much advancement. Incidentally Mr. Hanson, was Grayling's first village president, and it will be remembered that he had a very successful administration. Chairman Hanson announced at this time that those in charge would proceed with the corner-stone laying, when Mayor Burke had the honor of placing the copper box containing historical papers and letters into the niche.

Following Rev. Flory gave benediction and the crowd joined the choir in singing a stanza from the Star Spangled Banner, closing the ceremonies for the evening.

Contents of Copper Box. Letters and historical papers received from the following were the contents of the copper box that was placed in the corner-stone of the new building.

Hon. James A. Farley, Senator Prentiss M. Brown, Representative Roy O. Woodruff, City of Grayling, County Officials, Representative Frank P. Buza, Rev. James H. Moloney, Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce, Jennie Ingley, Elizabeth M. Bates, Postoffice Employees, American Legion Post No. 106, American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps, Winter Sports, Two copies of Crawford Avalanche, Four pictures of Grayling and its civic buildings.

Carved on Face of Stone. The following is carved in the face of the corner-stone: Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury.

James A. Farley, Postmaster General, Louis A. Simon, Supervising Architect, Neal A. Melick, Supervising Engineer, 1937.

Letters Placed in Corner-stone. Following is copy of several letters which were placed in the corner-stone:

Sept. 28, 1937
Mr. James McDonnell, Postmaster, Grayling, Mich.

Dear Sir and Fellow Kiwanian: It is with sincere pleasure that we greet you and extend congratulations in behalf of your fellow Kiwanians upon your success in securing a new postoffice for Grayling. We thank you and those others who assisted you in this enterprise.

We are going to be proud of this fine new edifice and we are very grateful to our U. S. Post Office department for making it possible for a city the size of Grayling to have a federal post-office.

Sincerely thanking you and the Federal Postoffice department, we remain, Sincerely yours, Kiwanis Club of Grayling, By O. P. Schumann, President.

September 28th, 1937
Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: Just to remind you that we are very grateful for the wonderful new postoffice erected here in the City of Grayling and in which the corner-stone is being laid tonight.

We also wish to thank our postmaster, Mr. James McDonnell, who so patiently worked to get this postoffice here and it was the untiring efforts that he put forth that made it possible as well as a few citizens who were deeply interested in getting it here. This building dedicated tonight is certainly a great milestone for this community and it certainly is deserving.

Axel M. Peterson, Crawford County Clerk, Ronnow Hanson, Register of Deeds, Crawford County, Wm. Ferguson, Crawford County Treasurer, Frank Bennett, Sheriff Crawford County.

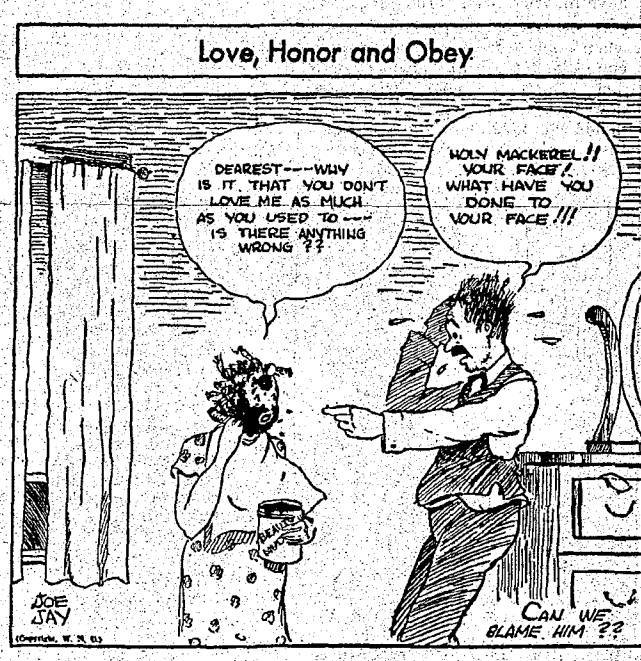

September 28, 1937
The Honorable George Burke, Mayor, Members of the City Council, Citizens of Grayling Friends

On this occasion of the laying of the corner-stone of the new Grayling Postoffice I take the opportunity to express, in the name of the parishioners of St. Mary's Church my thanks and appreciation to the Federal Government for this distinguished proof of their solicitude in our regard.

It is eminently proper that the Postal Authorities signalize the year of the 150th Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States of America by presenting to the City of Grayling this structure which not only redounds to the honor of our national government but inspires peace, confidence and happiness in the people of this city and surrounding territory.

It is not our habit to make fulsome professions of loyalty to our country. Our devotion to her is too deep, too sincere, to be wasted away in idle declamations. We prove our loyalty not by words but by acts but I am certain that all will agree we can

Adler Jorgenson Passed Away

Adler Jorgenson, age 69, well known and highly esteemed citizen of Grayling passed away at his home at 6:10 o'clock Wednesday evening. Mr. Jorgenson's passing came as a shock to his family and friends as he had only been ill for a few days. He was at his work as usual Saturday at Kerry & Hanson Company mill where he has been filer for several years.

Surviving are his widow, son Benton, and two grandchildren, Betty Jean and Willie Jorgenson of Detroit; two sisters and two brothers, Miss Carrie Jorgenson, Mrs. Dorothea Williams, Grayling, Walmer Jorgenson, Toledo; Frank P. Jorgenson, Detroit.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock at the home, Rev. Edgar Flory officiating.

REDSON AND COOLEY GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Very shortly the building now occupied by the Redson and Cooley Ready-to-Wear and Gift Shop will be vacant as that firm is disposing of its stock preparatory to retirement.

The late Mrs. Anna Redson and her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Cooley and husband (now deceased), came to Grayling and established the business May 15, 1920. Redson and Cooley sold millinery and fancy goods while Mr. Cooley conducted the gift shop department.

On the night of April 15, 1935 fire destroyed most of the contents of the store, but the owner of the building, Mrs. Anna Schlotz, immediately redecorated and the company restocked the store.

After eight years, Mr. Cooley took another location and Redson and Cooley added ready-to-wear to their stock, continuing until the present time, Mrs. Cooley's health making it compulsory for her to retire.

Mrs. Cooley has been untiring in her efforts to keep an up-to-date stock of goods that would meet the demands of the Grayling public. She built up a very flourishing business that weathered the depression and her friends are sorry she finds it necessary to give up her store after some forty-two years of continuous business life.

The building was occupied by the C. J. Hathaway Jewelry Shop prior to its occupancy by Redson and Cooley.

Boy Scout Council Met In Grayling

ALLEN SCHREUER ELECTED PRESIDENT. SUCCEEDS FRED WELSH.

A meeting of the northern district of the Boy Scout council was held in the school auditorium Tuesday evening. About 20 were present from Grayling, Gaylord, West Branch and Bay City.

Fred R. Welsh was the president of the Summer Trails council, including the region from the Thumb district north as far as Gaylord. A new president for the ensuing year was elected. The honor went to Allen Schreuer of Gaylord. Felix LaRocque of West Branch was elected vice president.

Earl R. Cristman, field executive of the Summer Trails council, was present and assisted in outlining plans for scout work for the coming winter and summer.

Auto Accident Claims Two Lives

Mrs. Genevieve Vallad, wife of Russell Vallad, died in Bay City Mercy Hospital Monday night from injuries received in an auto accident near Bay City. Also Arthur Schalk, age 17 son of a Bay County farmer lost his life from the same accident.

Mrs. Vallad was riding in a car driven by her husband and with them was their daughter Betty Lee and Mrs. Vallad's mother, Mrs. Alice Kile of Roscommon. Schalk was riding in a car driven by his father, Walter Schalk.

According to state police the accident occurred when Schalk, traveling north on US-23, two miles this side of Bay City suddenly attempted to make a left hand turn from the highway onto Fisher road. His car was struck broadside by Mr. Vallad, traveling south.

Betty Lee Vallad who received slight injuries, has been dismissed, however Mrs. Alice Kile is still a patient at Mercy Hospital suffering from head injuries, but is reported to be getting along nicely. The Vallads were on their way to Oxford to spend the weekend with Mrs. Vallad's sister, Mrs. Elgin Benware and family when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Russell Vallad

Genevieve Kile was born in Armada, Mich., Nov. 13, 1900 and with her parents moved to Roscommon county when she was a child. She attended school in Beaver Creek and also the Gerish school in Roscommon. In 1926 she was united in marriage to Russell Vallad of Grayling and this had been their home since that time.

Surviving besides the husband is their one daughter Betty Lee, age 10 years, her mother Mrs. Kile, Roscommon, three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Raymond Apley, Detroit; Mrs. Arthur Overmyer, Boyne Falls; Mrs. Elgin Benware, Oxford, and Harry Kile, Roscommon.

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home and 2:00 o'clock at Michelson Memorial church.

This is a very sad happening to have a young wife and mother, snatched from her home and family and they have the sympathy of hosts of friends in their sad bereavement.

LADY GYPSIES ARE JUST "GYPS" TO HIM NOW

Grayling, Mich.—Lars Rasmussen, of this city, has $200 back, thanks to Sheriff John Gillespie of Ogemaw county and state troopers of the West Branch post, and he will refuse to talk, shake hands or even look at a gypsy again.

Lars was walking down the street when accosted by one of the lady members of a gypsy troupe. The lady departed and so did all, but a few dollars of the $200 carried by Rasmussen. The money was in a wallet in a back trouser pocket. During the conversation, the wallet was extracted, the money taken out and the wallet, returned to the pocket. Rasmussen discovered his loss later and notified Sheriff Frank Bennett, who traced the nomads.

The gypsies, in two carloads, had been in Gaylord previously. While the welcome sign is out there continuously for tourists, Sheriff Jacob Deadman and City Marshal Harry Andrews decided instantly that the gypsies were not tourists and "escorted" them from the city.—Bay City Times.

Investigate Road Commission Acts

DEPUTY AUDITOR GENERAL'S STAFF HEARS WITNESSES

Officials of the Auditor General's department, Lansing, were in Grayling Wednesday to investigate what appears to have been irregularities by members of the County Road commission. Auditor General Gundry ordered the investigation on authority provided in the Uniform Accounting Act.

It appears that such irregularities, if they did happen, occurred some time ago and that the present board, as it now exists is new except for one member, Harry Souders.

Present at the investigation were James K. Jamison, deputy auditor general; and Martin J. Lavan, legal advisor. The following witnesses were called and questioned: Members of the County Road commission; members of the County Board of supervisors; J. E. Schoonover, James F. Knibbs, superintendent of construction; Charles Gierke, purchasing agent; Harry Reynolds; Roy McEvers; Otto Sube; Rufus Edmunds, and County Clerk Axel Peterson with his records.

Each witness was examined privately, behind closed doors. Deputy Jamison says that they prefer not to give out a statement until after the testimony has been transcribed and they have had time to study it. Just as soon as that is done they will give us a statement for publication.

Last January the board of supervisors passed a resolution asking that certain members of the Road commission be removed. The resolution was directed to the governor. The resolution was published in full in the official report of the supervisors' proceedings. The present action, said Mr. Jamison, is not an outcome from the resolution but instead was prompted from the records made in the recent county audit.

GUST-GRIFFITH

Saturday evening at eight-thirty o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Norma Mae Griffith, daughter of Mrs. B. B. Griffith and Samuel Albert Gust, grandson of Mrs. B. A. Cooley.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Edgar Flory of Michelson Memorial church, before a few friends at the home of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. B. A. Cooley. The bride, in a lovely gown of blue net over white satin was attended by her sister, Miss Donna Marie Griffith, who wore a navy blue silk dress trimmed in white. The bestman was Edward Cyde of Roscommon.

Following the wedding ceremony the guests were served dinner at the home of Mrs. Griffith, the bride and groom leaving for Lansing immediately after the dinner.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gust have lived most of their lives in Grayling where they graduated from the public schools. They both have many friends who join the Avalanche in extending congratulations.

Mrs. Alice Sullivan of Saginaw and Mr. Edward Cooper of Birchwood Lodge were out-of-town guests.

SORENSEN BABY SUCCEUMBS TO ILLNESS

Carole, the three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Sorenson, passed away at General Hospital in Bay City Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, where the child was taken that day, seriously ill.

Surviving besides the parents are two sisters, Jeanine and Rita, also grandmothers Mrs. George Sorenson, and Mrs. Elmer VanSickle of Houghton Lake. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home, Rev. Edgar Flory officiating. There were many relatives from Houghton Lake and other nearby places in attendance.

MRS. CARL MICKELSON LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Carl Mickelson entertained eight ladies at a charming luncheon and contract bridge party Tuesday afternoon. Places were found around a long table centered with an arrangement of autumn flowers.

Mrs. Olaf Mickelson and Mrs. Esbern Hanson held the honor scores. Guests included Mrs. H. A. Bauman, Mrs. Oscar Hanson, Mrs. Margrethe Graham, Mrs. Esbern Hanson, Miss Margrethe Bauman, Mrs. O. P. Schumann, Mrs. Olaf Mickelson, Mrs. Marius Hanson.

Conservation Men Kiwanis Club Guests

REPAIR TO COURT HOUSE TO DISCUSS WINTER SPORTS

The Kiwanis club was host to P. J. Hoffmaster, director, and H. Kingscott of the Michigan State Conservation commission, and Senator Miles M. Callaghan. The meeting had been postponed from the regular meeting time—Wednesday, noon—to Thursday evening (Sept. 24th).

It was a very enjoyable affair and short talks were given by each of the visitors and Charles Moore, vice president of the club, and president of Grayling Winter Sports, Inc. Some of the future plans for winter sports were outlined. Plans that will require several years to finish are being made that will bring Grayling winter sports park up to a standard equal to any in the country.

Senator Callaghan too spoke with much enthusiasm for the park and said that he intended to give a lot of attention to it.

Mass Meeting At Court House.

At the evening meeting at the court house, which was sponsored by the Izaak Walton League, with vice president Jack Redhead in charge, there was a fairly large size crowd present. He turned the meeting over to President Charles Moore of the Winter Sports. Similar talks were made here and blue prints of the new plans were exhibited.

Grayling Winter Sports, Inc. is without funds, and much work must be done before winter activities may begin. A bad season last year left the club without finances. Mr. Hoffmaster assured the audience that another of the buildings at Camp Hartwick Pines CCC camp would be available. It is the plan to have it available on such days when weather conditions do not permit of winter activities and which may be used for such indoor pleasures as dancing and others only on such occasions.

There appears to be little chance of financial support but prospects are good for a lot of other aid from the commission.

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION.

This week's meeting of the Kiwanis club (Wednesday) was devoted to round table discussions and reports of regular committees.

Plans are being made for a Ladies Night meeting to be held on Halloween night. Guests present were Edward Harvey, Rochester, and John J. Wright, of Detroit.

BILLYANN CLIPPETT CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Billyann Clippert, who celebrated her ninth birthday Wednesday had for her pleasure, several of her friends as dinner guests at her home that evening. The moving picture show starring Jane Withers in "Wild & Woolly" was enjoyed by her and her guests later in the evening. The little lady's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Webb, of Mt. Pleasant, were here also for the occasion.

BRIDE ENTERTAINED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Samuel Gust, who was before her marriage on Saturday, Miss Norma Griffith, was honored by her friends Thursday evening with a party and shower. Mrs. S. J. Reave was hostess of the affair at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ethel Griffith. There were fifteen present to wish her happiness, and she received many lovely gifts.

Grangers Having Booster Night

HOPE TO RAISE FUNDS FOR NEW HALL

The members of Crawford County Grange are holding a boosters night tonight at Oddfellows hall in the Temple theatre where an appropriate program will be presented. Anyone having ever attended one of these Grange programs will want to do so again. They are always very interesting. County Agricultural agent Arthur Glidden of Gaylord will be the principal speaker.

As most of our readers already know, the Grange is going to build a hall. The officers and members have for some time been laying aside such sums as they have been able to raise for this purpose. It is a big undertaking but Grangers are not the kind to be easily discouraged and they are starting right out to put the idea over.

A lot for the building site has already been secured and was a gift from Mrs. John Knecht, and is located near the base ball park. Plans for the building are being completed and will provide ample accommodations for the activities of the Grange with plenty of room for increased membership and activities.

Grangers are a most sociable and happy group. A potluck will be held and everyone is invited to bring a guest with them. Also Grangers are requested to bring along an exhibit that may be sold during the evening, proceeds from which will go into the building fund.

This meeting is an open one and the general public is invited. Let's everyone be there and show the Grange that they are appreciated by the people of Grayling. And don't forget to bring something to be sold. And you farmers of Crawford county would be most welcome to become members.

The following people have paid for a cement block for our new building:

Mrs. Cleo Mortenson	25c
Mrs. Hugo Schrieber	25c
Mrs. Eugenia Corwin	30c

Up Fifth Avenue In New York City

Attending the nineteenth annual national convention of the American Legion in New York last week, Grayling's delegation witnessed sights that they will never forget, but New York also enjoyed sights such as they have never experienced before.

One of the spectacles was the big parade, and New York took a holiday to watch it and it is estimated that more than 2,500,000 persons stood along the line of march and that 250,000 persons marched in the parade. It began at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning and lasted until 2:48 the following morning, ten minutes short of 18 hours. The marchers covered 53 blocks of Fifth avenue, and it is estimated there were 493 bands in the line of march with 800 picturesque floats and many prancing man and girl drum majors enlivening the endless columns of marching Legionnaires.

One newspaper said it may have only been an item on the Legion convention program, but it left New York gasping. In the air 100 planes of the air squadron maneuvered in the bright blue sky and at one time the writer noticed they formed a huge "A. L."—American Legion. After nightfall Fifth Avenue glowed with its golden lights and many powerful searchlights, green and blue, descended on the marchers.

First in the line of parade were several thousand New York policemen followed by the national commander and other officers of the Legion. Small delegations from Alaska, Canada, France, Hawaii, Italy, New

AN AFTER EFFECT

Summing up the net results of the late depression a Boston editor offers food for thought when he declares that the worst feature of it is that a lot of people found out they could actually live without working. He refers, of course, to those who, having passed through a period of idleness without going hungry, are now determined to remain idle and let the taxpayers feed them, much as the ravens fed Elijah in Biblical days. Every community has its share of them, and it is not necessary to wander very far from Grayling to discover the type. How to force such citizens to accept employment, and to again take up the responsibility of earning and paying their own way is a problem every section of the U. S. has to solve. And it isn't going to be an easy job. Loss of self-respect is a terrible thing. But even that can be regained if a man shows a willingness to try to regain it through honest labor. It is the one who prefers to become an object of charity who creates the real problem, and provides the most pathetic result of the entire depression heritage.

Children in Court

Judge Malcolm Hatfield

A certain district learned to its regret recently that it was directly responsible for the dishonesty of several boys. This particular community had been the home of a notorious personage and on his escape from the penitentiary the entire neighborhood openly voiced its hope that the convict would be able to avoid the police. As children love to mimic adults, it was only natural for the boys of the vicinity to adopt the gangster as their hero and model.

Conservation Com. Planting Deer Cover

EXPERIMENTAL WORK BEING DONE NEAR GRAYLING

As an experimental game-food project, more than 81,000 hardwood and shrub seedlings are being planted in the deer yard in Crawford county near Grayling, to produce food and cover for deer and other wildlife.

Plantings are being conducted by CCC crews from Camp Kalkaska on areas totaling 25 acres where the cover has been removed in experimental release-cutting projects.

The following species of trees and shrubs are being planted: Red osier dogwood, 40,000 seedlings; black cherry, 19,200; red maple, 6,275; choke cherry, 7,500; wild plum, 3,500; white ash, 3,200; sumac, 675. These seedlings were grown at the state hardwood nursery near Wolverine.

In addition, 500 baswood seedling furnished by Michigan state college and 200 soft maple and 100 Chinese elm grown at the state game farm near Mason are being planted.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

By ROBERTA LEE

1. When an invitation is received over the telephone, is it all right for one to say, "I shall let you know this evening, or tomorrow?"

2. Should a man remove his hat when in the elevator of a hotel or an office building, when a woman enters?

3. When passing a plate for a second helping, should one leave the knife and fork on the plate?

4. Should a young man, engaged to be married, resent it if the girl's father asks him questions pertaining to his financial affairs, business position, and health?

5. Is it discourteous when one is talking with a person, for this person to show a lack of interest in what is being said?

1. Never. This invitation must be accepted or declined without a moment's hesitation. A pause of even two or three seconds is bad form.

2. He should do so in a hotel elevator, but it is not necessary in an office building or shop.

3. Yes. Under no circumstances should silver be placed on the table cover.

4. No. The father has a perfect right to be concerned about everything that might affect the happiness of his daughter.

5. Yes. This is one of the most frequent acts of discourtesy. To be a good listener is one of the surest ways to gain friends, and is just as important as to be a good speaker.

Who Will Succeed Henry Shearer?

HIS RETIREMENT FROM SERVICE ANNOUNCED SUNDAY

Local Michigan Central employees are speculating who will succeed Henry Shearer, Vice-President and General Manager, whose resignation, effective October 1, was announced in Detroit Sunday. Appointment of the new directing head of the railroad is expected to be given out in New York shortly.

Resignation of Henry Shearer from the Michigan Central marks the passing of one of America's best known railroad operating men and the dean of Michigan railroad managers. To many he represents the link between a past era of railroading and the one that he himself helped inaugurate.

A giant of a man, standing 6 feet, 5 inches, with tremendous vigor and driving energy, Vice-President Shearer placed his stamp on American railroading and particularly on that portion of the industry in Michigan though the Michigan Central is the only railroad on which he ever worked. He entered its service 45 years ago.

Henry Shearer is a native son of Michigan. He was born in Galien, Michigan, March 1, 1868. After a high school education he entered the railroad service on June 6, 1892, as a bill clerk at Matteson, Illinois. Successively he was agent at Porter, Indiana, 1893-95; agent, Chicago Heights, Illinois, 1895-98; agent, Michigan City, Ind., 1898-99; traveling freight agent, Chicago, 1899-1900; Chief Clerk, General Freight Department, Chicago, 1900-02; agent, Jackson, Michigan, 1902; Chief Clerk to General Manager, Detroit, 1903-09; Division Superintendent, St. Thomas, Ont., 1909-12; Assistant to General Manager, 1912-13; Assistant General Superintendent, 1913-16; General Superintendent 1916-20; General Manager, 1920-26; Assistant Vice-President and General Manager, 1926-30; Vice-President and General Manager since 1930.

Many traditions in the railroad industry in Michigan revolve around the retiring executive. Many stories are told of his dynamic personality and methods in the days when he was coming up from the ranks, particularly in the period when he was a division superintendent. One of the dramatic events involving him occurred when he was agent at Porter. Coxey's Army was marching on Washington. A band of 75 Coxeyites attempted to interfere with the operation of a train that was already having difficulty in moving because of the historic Pullman strike then in progress. Shearer, towering above the crowd and armed with two axes, backed himself against the side of the cars and successfully dared the crowd to halt the train.

Mr. Shearer plans to make his winter home at Fort Myers, Florida, but will spend his summers on Otsego Lake in Northern Michigan, as he has done for the past 20 years.

DOUBLE WINDOWS FOR CASEMENTS

DURING the warm times of year, casement windows that swing outward are certainly attractive. This is not only for appearance, but for the full ventilation that comes with the opening of an entire window space. In winter, however, the situation is reversed. Out-swinging casement windows are more likely to leak than is the case with windows of other kinds. Also, the ordinary form of double window cannot be used.

When there are two or more casement windows in a room, it is unusual for more than one to be opened during bitter weather. This being so, all of the windows but one can be kept closed, and ordinary double windows put on outside. For the one window that is to be opened, a removable double window can be attached inside. If the casement is provided with inside insect screens on hinges, the screens can be replaced with glass. Another possibility is a sheet of plate glass covering the entire opening, set in a frame of wood molding, fitted to the inside of the window frame. The molding should have good-sized handles attached to it, so that it can be easily moved, and when in place, it is held by simple bolts or turn-buckles.

Double windows raise the temperature of a room by many degrees. There is far less chilling of the space near a window, and drafts in the room are greatly cut down. Double windows are well worth whatever they may cost.

Crawford County Couple Married 40 Years

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kellogg, of Crawford county, shown above with their children and grandchildren (Mr. Kellogg has arm around Mrs. Kellogg), were feted on Sunday on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary. The celebration occurred in the family home in Lovells township, near Grayling, where they have resided for 85 years. It was also Mr. Kellogg's 75th birthday celebration. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bradford and family of Eaton Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vance and family of Mio; Mrs. Sherwood Curtis and family of St. Clair; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford of Grayling; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kellogg and son, Larry, of Saginaw; Mrs. Lyle St. John and son, Leon, of Detroit; John Kellogg, of Detroit; Robert Kellogg, of Saginaw; Mrs. Florence Kellogg, of Manistee; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellogg of Saginaw. Also attending were Charles, Elmer, Helen and Guy Kellogg, residing at home.

PREDICT MANY ANTLERED DEER THIS YEAR

Deer hunters should find a larger percentage of young antlered deer in northern Michigan this fall than in 1936, due to the comparatively mild weather of the past winter and the favorable spring and summer seasons, according to the opinion of game men here.

In some sections of Michigan last fall the deer kill ran heavier to older deer than normal. Game authorities here believe this was the result of the severe winter of 1-35-1936 in which starvation caused the deaths of many deer, the fawns being hardest hit. Deer born in the spring of 1936 faced conditions much less severe last winter and the males will be wearing antlers, a considerable portion containing as many as eight points, during deer season this fall.

Plan E. M. T. A. Annual Meeting*Tourist Groups To Meet Oct. 12

More Than 500 Expected To Attend Session At Bay City

BAY CITY—President W. J. Antcliff of the East Michigan Tourist association and Lauren J. Budge, president of the Northeastern Michigan Development bureau have announced October 12 as the date of the annual joint meeting of the organizations.

Each year the event attracts many leading state officials, tourist authorities and county officers as well as members of the organizations. More than 500 persons are expected to attend the meeting.

Opening the affair will be a noon luncheon at which the directors of the organizations and newspapermen will gather. Chester M. Howell of Chesaning, vice-president of the Michigan Press association, will be in charge.

Election of officers and the formulation of organization policies feature the afternoon business session. The Bay county board of supervisors is to adjourn at noon to make room for the meeting. Two or more directors from each county and an executive committee will be chosen.

Michael A. Gorman, editor of the Flint Journal, is to preside at the evening dinner which will end the meeting.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

Thursday, October 1, 1914

The Grayling Greenhouse, originally instituted by John H. Cook in 1911, has recently been much improved and enlarged. Like most new business ventures the first year or two the path of success was not strewn with roses and it was only by indefatigable industry and thrift that it was kept alive. Eventually it was not a matter of finding a market for the products, but it soon became a question as to how the demand might be supplied, and then the matter of capital to increase the facilities began to loom up and again dark clouds became visible in the background. Not wishing to remain at a standstill, Mr. Cook interested Rasmus Hanson in the project, and last April that gentleman purchased the property and immediately under the advisement of Mr. Cook proceeded to erect this splendid new addition; and now we have a greenhouse that will be able to provide for all the wants in that line that our people may demand.

The state conventions were in session yesterday and full delegations were sent from Crawford county. Oscar Palmer, John J. Niederer and Melvin A. Bates represented the republicans at Kalamazoo; John Hum and N. B. Goodard the democrats at Detroit; and Chris King, Geo. Mahon and Ralph Hanna the progressives at Bay City.

Rev. V. J. Hufton of the local M. E. Church has been appointed to a circuit in Deford, near Port Huron. This was a surprise to Mr. Hufton, who expected to be returned to Grayling and is also a great disappointment to the members of the local church.

Burnie Parsons visited his wife in Bay City the forepart of last week.

Cement walks on Peninsula Avenue and Maple street have been completed.

M. A. McIsaac of Mackinaw was a guest of Miss Nellie Shanahan a few days this week.

Holger Hanson returned this morning after a week's vacation in Detroit.

A. C. Olson and Fred Mutton attended a meeting of the Shrine held in Saginaw Thursday.

Mrs. A. M. Lewis and baby returned Monday from Newberry, where they had spent the past six weeks with the former's mother.

Herluf Sorenson left Thursday for Saginaw to have his eyes treated.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arfield Charron, Friday, Sept. 25th, a fine baby girl.

Mrs. Nels Olson returned last Saturday from Saginaw, where she had been visiting.

Miss Hattie Gassell of Lewiston spent the latter part of the week at the Brenner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Meistrup arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon, after a two week's wedding tour.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport and little daughter left Wednesday for a week's visit in Bay City and Detroit.

Mrs. Carl Mork, Mrs. A. L. Pond, and Mrs. Jos. Letzkus left Monday for Gaylord to attend the Otsego county fair.

Alfred Sorenson returned to Des Moines, Iowa, after a short visit here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Sorenson.

Mrs. M. Simpson returned Friday from Flint, where she had been in attendance at the funeral of her father, John F. Wilcox.

A report received from Mrs. C. J. Hathaway, who is in Harper hospital in Detroit, is very encouraging and it is expected that she will make an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Heyl and children of Monroe, Louisiana, arrived last Tuesday, and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hanson. The Heyl family moved to Louisiana about a year ago.

A sewing club, consisting of twenty members, was organized on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Miss Lillian Bates. Miss Arvilla Jones was elected president and Miss Bates secretary. The name of the club is Laiffalotte.

James Overton has purchased the Star Picture theatre at Gaylord.

Mrs. A. F. Gierke returned Friday evening after a several days visit in Detroit.

Walter Cowell and Alonzo Collier attended the horse races at Grand Rapids last week.

Miss Francelia Wingard assisted in the Model bakery while Miss Anna Brown attended the fair at Gaylord Tuesday.

Miss Augusta Kraus and Marguerite Chamberlin left Saturday for Ypsilanti to continue their studies at the Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dutton of Roscommon brought their little son, Mason, to Mercy Hospital Thursday, where he underwent a slight operation.

Mrs. A. G. Wade and daughter Lois of Chicago, arrived last Friday afternoon for a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delevan Smith. Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Smith are sisters.

Lorne Douglas of Johannesburg visited friends here the latter part of the week, enroute to the U. of M.

School Notes (23 Years Ago)

Louie Joseph, Lorne Douglas and Bessie Failing were High School visitors last week.

Hazel Cassidy was absent from school Friday. She was in Ann Arbor.

Agnes Smith was absent from school because of sickness.

Edward Harrison entered the first grade this week.

Emerson Hoesli was absent from the first grade Tuesday on account of illness.

Creva Hewitt was in Bay City over Sunday.

Miss Marion Salling substituted for Miss Irving in the Fourth grade last Friday.

Clyde Britton and Darl Dupree have been absent this week.

A LAND OF LAWS

No other nation on earth has as many laws as America and, according to statistics, no other nation is as lawless. Every year, year in and year out, 48 legislatures in as many states meet and enact new laws, and every year a national congress meets and does the same thing.

What the average Grayling taxpayer can't understand is why so many new laws are necessary, or would be necessary, if the old ones were enforced. And why those that are obsolete, or that apparently cannot be enforced, are not removed from the statute books. Since the cost of law-making comes directly out of the pockets of the taxpayers then they certainly have a right to ask such questions. Every newly-elected legislator goes to the state capital, as a rule, with material for a lot of new laws tucked away in his pocket or his head.

Fortunately, only a small percentage of them actually become laws. But at that each legislative session sees a big bunch of new ones placed on the ever-mounting pile of statute books, and each year finds more and more of the old ones going unenforced.

There must be an answer somewhere to the question of the taxpayers who ask: "Why?" But hope of ever getting that question answered constantly becomes more remote. The making of new laws and failure to enforce the old ones goes right on, world without end. And the taxpayers of the nation, rich or poor or little or big, go right on footing the bill.

YOUR EYES

There is a valuable suggestion in the report of a national association of opticians to the effect that "Americans are going blind hunting for eyeglass bargains." It is a suggestion everyone in or around Grayling who wears glasses, or expects to, should ponder over.

The opticians do not point out that eyesight is the most valuable of all the human senses; they take it for granted that everyone knows that. But they do stress the fact that unless more care is taken in the future in buying glasses than has been shown in the past, America will eventually become a nation of faulty-visioned citizens. Each year finds a greater percentage of the population turning to eyeglasses and each year, the opticians say, a larger number of irresponsible persons are traveling about the country peddling cheap and harmful glasses to those who place so little value on their eyesight that they are willing to gamble with it in the hope of saving a few pennies.

Eyesight is something far too precious to be neglected or ignored. That eyeglasses are one of mankind's greatest blessings is a fact recognized by the millions who, sooner or later, find it necessary to turn to them for relief when vision becomes faulty and blindness threatens. But apparently there are many thousands in this country who have not yet realized that eyeglasses can be either a blessing or a menace. Taking chances on an unknown and irresponsible peddler when eyesight—your most precious natural gift—is at stake, is too much like inviting someone to rob you of your greatest earthly treasure, and then paying them for doing so.

"A good memory is something to be proud of," says sagacious Sue, "but there come times in one's life where he wishes to forget."

JOBS COMMISSION FORMS MAILED TO EMPLOYERS

Detroit, Sept. 29.—Liability and contribution report forms covering payrolls for the first nine months of 1937 were mailed today by the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission to 35,000 employers throughout the State.

The liability report form (UC-9) must be filled out in detail and returned to the commission's offices in the Fox Building, Detroit, by October 15.

The contribution report form (UC-10) must be returned to the commission by October 31 with the employer's two per cent contribution on all wages paid for subject employment during the first nine months of 1937.

"The two forms," said Frank A. Picard, commission chairman, "are being sent to all employers who have previously registered with the commission and had four or more employees in 1936."

Picard estimated that the commission will collect approximately $20,000,000 from between 16,000 and 20,000 Michigan employers in contributions for the first nine months of this year.

"The liability and contribution report forms," Picard said, "must be filled out by all employers to whom they are sent, despite the fact that only employers of eight or more persons are liable for contributions."

"Failure of the commission to send these reports to any one employer does not relieve the employer of his obligations," Picard said. "He must obtain the reports, fill them out correctly and return them to the commission."

Copies of the forms may be obtained from the Commission's Detroit offices, at field offices and in the near future from city and county offices throughout Michigan. All of the commission's field representatives are prepared to assist employers in filling out the two forms.

A simple explanation of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Act and instructions to be followed in filling out the forms will accompany both reports, Picard said.

"The instructions," Picard explained, "are designed to assist the employer in determining his liability under the act. In general an employer is liable and must pay contributions if he employed eight or more persons in each of 20 different weeks, either in 1936 or in 1937."

"It makes no difference," Picard added, "whether such 20 weeks are consecutive, nor does it make any difference whether or not the eight individuals were employed simultaneously or whether the same eight workers were employed in each of the twenty qualifying weeks."

Other important points employers must remember about the act when filling out the forms Picard said, are:

1—All employers who are subject to Title IX of the Social Security Act are likewise subject to the Michigan act and must pay a contribution, even though they do not have eight employees in this state.

2—Any combination of small employers, owned and controlled by the same interests, is termed a single employer and is liable for contributions under the state act.

3—Employers are liable only for the first $3,000 of wages paid each individual employee. However, one employee may earn $3,000 or more from several employers, each of whom must pay a contribution on the first $3,000 they pay him.

4—Employers claiming not to be subject to the act must answer in detail all questions asked on the report to determine liability.

5—Part time and temporary workers must be included as employees and contributions are payable on their wages.

6—The amended Michigan act permits the employer to report on his regular pay-roll periods, rather than any arbitrary quarterly or monthly period.

7—In computing contributions the employer must include as wages the reasonable cash value of board, room or other services given the worker as part of his remuneration.

UNLAWFUL TO DRESS OUT SMALL GAME

Do not dress out pheasants, squirrels, rabbits or other small game until you get home! That is the advice conservation officers throughout the state are instructed to pass out to small game hunters this month.

The game laws expressly forbid sportsmen to clean their game in the field in such a way as to prevent proper identification of sex or species.

Conservation authorities say that the violation of the section of the law forbidding this type of offense has been common during past hunting seasons. On being arrested, the violator usually insisted he was not acquainted with the law and that he was innocent of intent to violate.

Battle of Lake Champlain

Gen. Sir George Prevost in 1814 led 12,000 troops in an invasion of New York by way of Lake Champlain. On September 11, Commodore Macdonough won a brilliant victory over a superior British squadron in the battle of Lake Champlain. His line of supply from Canada thereby disrupted, Prevost and his army abandoned the invasion and beat a hasty retreat.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

JUMPER TELLS PETER WHO THE STRANGER IS

PETER RABBIT could hardly believe what he had seen—the big black stranger, with the great terrible claws, backing away from Jimmy Skunk, and Jimmy acting just as if he were in the habit of meeting this stranger every day and making him get out of his way. And yet he knew that Jimmy never had seen him before. Peter always had had a great deal of respect for Jimmy Skunk. He knew that Jimmy just laughed at Reddy Fox, although Reddy is ever so much bigger than he, and he knew that Bowser the Hound always turned aside if he happened to meet Jimmy. But he really had not thought that Jimmy would dare to treat this great stranger so, and if he hadn't seen it himself he wouldn't have believed it because—well, because he couldn't have believed it.

Peter was full of wonder and excitement as he hurried away to tell all whom he should meet what he had seen. He didn't know who the stranger was. Never had he seen anyone like him in the Green Forest. The very thought of him made Peter shake with fright, even if Jimmy Skunk should say that there was nothing to be afraid of, and Peter knew that this is just what Jimmy would say when he met him. Presently as he hurried, lipperty-lipperty-lip, through the Green Forest he met his cousin, Jumper the Hare.

"Oh, Jumper! Cousin Jumper! I've seen him!" cried Peter just as soon as he was near enough to make himself heard.

Jumper sat up and looked at Peter curiously. "Supposing you tell me whom you've seen," said he quite as if he had no particular interest in the matter.

"Why, the stranger! The great big stranger who made those tracks in the snow I told you about and whom you tried to find and couldn't. I saw him just a few minutes ago! Who do you suppose he is, and do you suppose he has come to the Green Forest to stay?" cried Peter, talking so fast that the words just tumbled out.

"How should I know?" replied Jumper the Hare. "Suppose you tell me something about him. What does he look like?"

"Well, he's big," began Peter. "He's bigger than anyone else in the Green Forest. Why, he's as big as Farmer Brown's boy! He wears a black fur coat. He stands on two legs and he walks on four legs, and he hasn't any tail."

Jumper yawned just as if he weren't the least bit interested. "I've heard all that before from Sammy Jay," said he.

"And don't you believe it?" cried Peter.

Jumper the Hare smiled at Peter, and Peter knew right away by that smile that his big cousin had been teasing him. "Yes," said he, "I believe it because—well, because I have seen him myself."

"You have?" cried Peter, "and do you really know who he is?"

Jumper nodded. "Yes," said he, "he's an old acquaintance of mine."

"Who?" demanded Peter, his eyes popping out with excitement. "Tell me quick, who is he?"

"He's someone I used to know when I lived in the Great Woods before I came to live in the Green Forest on the edge of the Green Meadows," replied Jumper, speaking so slowly that Peter thought he would never get it out.

"But what's his name? Do tell me his name, Cousin Jumper," implored Peter.

"His name," replied Jumper slowly, very slowly, while Peter held his breath and leaned forward with eyes and ears and mouth wide open, "his name is—"

"Is what?" cried Peter.

"Is Buster Bear," replied Jumper the Hare.

DO MILITARY MEN LIKE WAR?

No sensible man wants war. The pacifist usually imagines that the man who wears the uniform is usually out for blood and that he is never happier than when he hears the big guns roar. Those who are in the service know this to be silly.

Men, who know war, despise it. That is the reason they believe in preparing against the evil day.

It is now known that if the United States had been prepared at the beginning of the World War thousands of lives would have been spared and at least twelve billion dollars saved.

"Magic Island" At San Francisco Dredged Up From Sea

The 430 acre site of the Golden Gate International Exposition shown above is literally a magic island for it was made of material dredged up from the sea. After the exposition in 1939 it will be transformed into a fine municipal airport.

Half of the sea wall for the island was transported by GMC trucks from the quarry to sea-going barges that dumped the big boulders into place. Photos below show the trucks at work in the quarry and loading one of the huge barges.

THE CAUSE OF INDIGESTION

From one of the prominent motor vehicle police in an eastern state came the statement that the majority of accidents can be traced to the driver who is violating the law.

To some drivers law observance doesn't seem to mean anything at all. This type must be forced to obey the laws. Education has no effect upon them. Their code is not: "What is the Law?" but "What can I get away with?" It is the latter that the officer refers to, no doubt, and he is right.

We need better law enforcement on our highways. What would happen if our railroads, steamship lines, and other companies were as weak in enforcing safety regulations as some of our state are in enforcing safety regulations on our highways?

Give the reckless driver his due punishment and enforce the law rigidly.

"King of the Pines"

The sugar pine tree, "king of all the pines," grows to an incredible height. Its wood is smooth and soft and cream-colored. It is a species relatively rare, growing only in California and Oregon. Even there it is found only in certain choice locations, where the rich soil left by long-vanished glaciers, combined with amenities of altitude and climate, favor it.

Conservation Comm. Buys Wild Land

Lansing, Sept. 29.—Purchase of 3,345 acres of wild land from the $1.50 deer license fund was approved by the state conservation commission at its September meeting.

The land to be purchased contains more than two miles of river and lake frontage. Purchase will consist of 2,013 acres in Life Lake state forest with frontage on Jackson creek; 185 acres in the AuSable state forest with frontage on Big Creek; 223 acres in the Dead Stream project west of Houghton lake and 80 acres in the Norway game area, Dickinson county.

Battle of Lake Champlain
Gen. Sir George Prevost in 1814 led 12,000 troops in an invasion of New York by way of Lake Champlain. On September 11, Commodore Masdonough won a brilliant victory over a superior British squadron in the battle of Lake Champlain. His line of supply from Canada thereby disrupted, Prevost and his army abandoned the invasion and beat a hasty retreat.

ney, and similarly, indigestion is invited by eating a heavy meal when one is tired or emotionally upset.

Overwork, worry, and loss of sleep tend to cause fatigue and with this comes a lessening of the secretions necessary for proper digestion. It would seem advisable for us to avoid food during these periods.

It's Not From a Horror Movie

Berlin.—No fantastic setting for a "Frankenstein" cinema is this weird scene. The group of scientists gathered about the diabolical contraption are engaged in the smashing of the atom, to harness the tremendous power within it. The 50-foot machine uses 3,600,000 volts of electricity, and is housed in a windowless tower 135 feet high. Prof. Peter Debye is conducting the experiments in the Emperor Wilhelm institute of physics.

Plates Are Set For Masonic Banquet

FIRST EVENT IN NEW TEMPLE. GRAND OFFICERS COMING

Anyone taking a peek thru the windows of the new Masonic temple will see long tables already set with linens and dishes, ready for the big rally dinner that is to be served here tomorrow (Friday) night.

It's a sight that is more than welcome to all fellow Masons for it means that eventually their temple will be finished and ready for occupancy. And to the general public it means the opening of another place where functions may be held and where there may be gatherings and assemblies for social and civic purposes.

This marks what we believe to be the beginning of a most successful era in Masonry. The event will be featured by the presence of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Michigan. Covers have been laid for about eighty and it is expected that there will be an attendance of almost 100% of Grayling members and Masonic members residing in Grayling. A few invitations have been extended to members of nearby lodges.

THANK YOU ALL

We, the American Legion Drum and Bugle corps wish at this time to thank each and everyone who contributed to the fund to take us to New York, to the largest convention in the world, to participate in the largest parade ever held. We realize if it had not been for you good people we could not have made the trip, and we trust we made a showing that will make you feel well repaid. In the next issue of this paper we will publish a complete list of those contributing towards the trip. Again we thank you.

UP FIFTH AVENUE

Mexico, Philippine Islands, and Puerto Rico marched, and then the large delegations from every state in the union passed in review. New York state with 30,000 marchers required close to five hours to pass, with Pennsylvania a close second. In describing the parade the New York Sun said it was a "word-defying spectacle of color, mass marching and pageantry" and that describes it better than any words that may come to the writer's mind.

All along Fifth Avenue from the starting point at West Madison Square Gardens, the streets were a mass of packed humanity with many perched on balconies and windows of the many-story buildings along the way. Photographers were busy snapping pictures and moving pictures of the entire parade, were being taken from the top of an automobile, to be shown first at the Ziegfeld Theatre in New York. We don't know whether any of the folks at home were listening, but each organization as it passed 59th street was announced over the radio, and "Here comes Grayling-on-the-AuSable, the smallest Michigan Post marching on Fifth Avenue" came over the air and was broadcast to all corners of the country.

Heading the Michigan delegation was the new State commander Carl Smith of Bay City, and "Michigan, My Michigan" was being generously played. Several Michigan cities were represented but Grayling was the only Post there with its drum and bugle corps and with the largest delegation from the tenth Michigan congressional district. It was with a grand feeling of pride that we hailed Grayling coming up Fifth Avenue in the distance. They were making a grand appearance and were being loudly cheered. Drum Major "Spike" looking his best was stepping high, as they came into view, and following him was a junior drum major, a little Miss Gloria Herbert of River Rouge, age 12 years, who attracted a lot of attention. The musical organization of Post 314 of River Rouge to which she belonged did not show up and as Grayling had no junior drum major they were pleased to have her march with them, and she was proud to be with them in the line of march. When the Corps came to 79th street where they disbanded the little Miss was besieged by crowds of children asking for her autograph which he gladly gave.

Grayling Drum and Bugle Corps have many friends to thank for the liberal donations to the fund that was raised for the trip to New York and the convention, and we believe Grayling should feel justly proud of the way the delegation conducted itself and of the grand showing made. They made friends for Grayling everywhere they went and we cannot help but feel that the money expended was well worth it.

We noticed Axel Peterson of Detroit and Grayling clad in all his fine feathers at the head of the state of Minnesota Legionnaires. The entire drum corps and marchers were in Indian dress from head to foot.

Our Trip To New York

On Friday evening, Sept. 17, the Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps marched down to a special coach placed by the Michigan Central for them to go to New York. By the time the train was due to arrive at our city a huge crowd of our good citizens and well-wishers were on hand.

The boys were all happy and ready to take off for "Broadway" and soon we were moving. Then it was a sure jolly good bunch singing and telling stories. Upon arriving at Detroit we were out into a special train where we met the "Faust, Glee Club" and the Chevrolet Drum & Bugle Corps and several others, there being about 500 bound for the big city. The gang was sure merry, and upon arrival at Niagara Falls nearly everyone got out for the "seventh inning stretch." After viewing the falls we took off again and in the evening arrived at the Grand Central Terminal station in New York, tired but happy. Soon, we taxied to the Breslin Hotel where we put away and take it from me, we sure were ready for the bed.

Sunday morning early everyone was up and doing and a little rain failed to dampen the spirits of the boys. We were located on 29th and Broadway and with the wonderful management of the Breslin, which we all agree was great, for anyone who stopped there was made to feel at home. After breakfast the rain stopped and some of the boys went to Coney Island, others to Jack Dempsey's Restaurant and others here and there. After dinner we went to the Yankee stadium to see the Tigers trounce the Yankees and we were amply repaid because they sure played their very best.

After the game we went to dinner and then went back to the Breslin on Broadway and got into our uniforms and lined up for a few tunes played for the management of this fine hotel, and its guests. Then we lined up on Broadway and took off for Jack Dempsey's famous restaurant which is located across from Madison Square Gardens. Lest we forget to mention it, the Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps was the first organization to march down Broadway in uniform. When we arrived at Times Square it took several police to clear the way so we could finish our trip to Jack Dempsey's Restaurant where we met none other than "Smiling Jack" who shook hands with each member and gave us a royal welcome. Several selections were played here and the crowd that milled into this spot will never be forgotten, nor the applause we received from them. After leaving here we decided to go back to the hotel.

Monday was devoted to sight-seeing, purchasing of souvenirs, and taking in the wonder spots of New York. In the evening several went out to see the 40 and 8 and 40 parade which was of about 4 1/2 hours duration going by the reviewing stand. Then we went to the Drum Corps finals, which were very fine.

On Tuesday, the day of the Big Parade, which was on the move before nine in the morning, our Corps was getting ready to enter about 2 o'clock. We marched to 25th Street and over to the East side of 29th street where we waited five hours before we were on the march in the parade. At the head of the Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps was a large banner carried by two comrades and reading "Grayling Post 106 on World Famous AuSable—Smallest Post Marching on 5th Avenue", and then our Drum Major "Spike" McNeven and little Miss Gloria Herbert from River Rouge doing her "stuff" as junior drum major, and was she good!

I don't believe that Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps ever played any better than on 5th Avenue, Tuesday, or ever received such an ovation. With the compliments of the people and the New York Press we feel that our Drum Corps really did a lot to put Grayling before this huge crowd. After the parade the hands of the Drum Corps president, and drum major Miss Herbert and several others were nearly paralyzed from autographing for the fans. The Corps tried to get back to the hotel to change their clothes, but such a crowd!

On Wednesday morning the largest part of the 32 members of the Drum Corps that left Grayling took off from Broadway to say "Hello Michigan" again and took the special train out of New York at Grand Central Station, arriving at Grayling at 5:30 next morning. Some who stayed in New York to see some of the sights came back Friday and others Saturday and all will say that it was a wonderful trip from start to finish.

Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps.
A. LaChapelle, President.

High Lights of Legion Trip

Looking back our impressions run together in a series of pictures that flicker across our mind like a motion picture once seen and that cannot be forgotten. Here they are:

Hours and hours of practice. Straighten up there. Guide right, GUIDE RIGHT. You can't go to New York looking like a bunch of hicks. Get some snap in those bugles; drummers, get your sticks up. Try four and seven again and KEEP UP THE TIME!

Midnight at the train. From the crowd you'd think we were off to war. Maybe we were. Is this an air conditioned coach? Alright let's go. GOOD BYE, GOOD BYE.

What's this, Roscommon? I thought we were coming into Bay City. Harmony. Penny ante. Let's get some sleep. What an optimist!

Breakfast in Detroit. How'd you ever get so dirty already?

Back on the train again. What a ride! Impressions blur. Niagara Falls, New York State, Apples, big red ones, tree loaded. Truck gardens. The Mohawk Valley, Erie Canal. Darkness. We must be almost here. What did that conductor say, four hours more? What a ride!

Grand Central Station. How do you find your way out? This must be the place, Legionnaires all over. Housing committee headquarters. Give us service, our boys are tired. Waiting an hour to be told the assigned quarters are not fit. What was that explosion? O.K. we'll try W. 28th St. then. It better be good. We're tired and dirty and hungry. What's this, a bath house. Did we make a mistake? No, you're in the right place. It may be the right address, but it's not the right place. Let's go. The hotel Breslin, Broadway and 29th St. What a break! What a break! Let's clean up and eat. In bed at 3 a.m. Up again at 8:30. Housing headquarters again. We want our money back. We got it.

407 W. 56th St. The smell fouled our impressions. We leave a note for Dago. Burn it, you might get lousy.

The Empire State Bldg. Up the first 1000 feet in one minute; your ears feel funny. On top of 102 stories. Who said we could see Grayling? See that sunlight streak across the city. That isn't the Queen Mary, that's a river tug.

A sight-seeing trip. But full of Legionnaires. Rubber neck, rubber neck. Down 5th Avenue, Wall Street, The City Hall, Post office, Little Church Around the Corner, Chase National Bank, The House of Morgan, a million dollars a foot. How about selling me an inch. The Battery, China Town, The Ghetto, Little Italy. How about a pair of suspenders for a nickel. People, people everywhere.

The elevated to the Battery. Each man his own conductor. Watch the signs and get off or you'll ride all day and maybe all night. Governor's Island. See the Statue of Liberty. I'll say it needs a bath. Officers playing golf. A polo game. Feet getting tired.

Sunday night. Fall in. I guess we're the first drum corps to march up Broadway. Jack Dempsey's and Jack himself to shake hands with every man. Take these post cards. Number four and number seven. What a hand! Who went to Kellys? Who saw Joe Louis?

Back to the Breslin. No towel and no pillows. Sweet sleep. Say, this is no time to see Central Park.

Who saw the ball game yesterday? Out Riverside Drive. Battleships in the River. Back in Central Park. The planetarium. I'd like to walk to the Zoo but my feet hurt. Back to the hotel. Let's go shopping. Macys, the biggest store in the world. Woolworths. In the evening to the Polo grounds to the drum corps competition. The bravest sight we have ever seen. Worth the whole trip. Afterward lunch at the Automat. "Chuck" with a pocket full of money and he can't get at the food.

Tuesday morning, the big parade. People jammed in the streets like sardines. They must have been saving their paper for this. Look at that Confederate float, battle flags and everything. There's a drum corps dressed like Indians, another like cowboys, another like Mexicans, another like the British at Bunker Hill. A little girl toe dancing up 5th Avenue. A bigger one, and a beauty, kicking her way, and we mean kicking! There's the Navy rowing along. Bands, music, color, bombs, paper? What's that roar overhead? Airplanes. Who tried to count them?

1:30. Fall in. Marching to 28th and Broadway. We take off at 2:15. Standing in the street waiting. It looks like a January snowfall in Grayling, but without the cold. More music, color, noise. Watch your instruments. Waiting, waiting. We acquire a little girl drum major.

6 P. M. Here we go. What a sight, up 5th Avenue, Main Street in the city of seven million. Where did the rest of them come from? Four and seven, four and seven, for ever and ever. Look at that little drum major strut. Are they cheering for us or for her? Is the pavement hot or is it just the blisters on our feet? The reviewing stand at 55th St. A blinding glare and a loud speaker. "The Grayling, Michigan Drum and Bugle Corps is now passing, dressed in red coats and blue pants, with one of the sweetest little drum majors seen on 5th Ave today." We wonder if anyone back home is listening in. On and on. Four and seven. How much further, only 20 blocks? Cheers and cheers. Right turn. Just a few more blocks. 79th St., 80th St., fall out. Autograph chasers. If your name is Robert Taylor, I'm Napoleon.

Back to the Breslin by cab. Let's eat. Then Coney Island. Oysters on the half shell. Hot dogs and coffee. Leo wants another ride on the Dip of Death. Back and to bed.

5 A. M. All out for the train. Waiting at Grand Central Station. Someone made a mistake of one hour and we have to wait it out. On the train again, here we go. Goodbye New York. The Hudson, the palisades, the river, river boats, Earl and his camera, clicking, clicking, clicking. Hope they turn out good. Lunch on the train. More baked ham. The Mohawk Valley, Erie Canal, apples, trees, gardens. Buffalo, Canada. Supper in Detroit and a brisk walk to ease the cramps. What's the idea of wearing slippers?

11 P. M. On our way. Let's all sleep. More optimists. All out for Grayling. WHAT A TRIP! WHAT A TRIP!!

NEW YORK HOTEL PRAISES
GRAYLING LEGIONAIRES

Received letter by air mail from

Hotel Breslin,
New York City
September 24, 1937
The Honorable George Burke,
Mayor of the City of Grayling,
Grayling, Michigan

My dear Mayor Burke:
It gives me the greatest pleasure to write to you regarding the Grayling Drum and Bugle Corps who stopped at the Breslin from Sunday to Wednesday of American Legion Convention week.

The sincere praise which I want to bestow upon each and every member comes direct from my heart. There were thirty-four members, some with their wives, and I must say that in my twenty years in this business, I never handled a more pleasing group of gentlemen, of which the City of Grayling should be very proud. I feel that the Breslin will remain in their minds, and know that they will return to us in the future.

With heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the success of your administration, believe me

Cordially yours,
David W. Smith,
Manager, Hotel Breslin.

SALESMAN SAYS GRAYLING
DRUM CORPS MADE FINE SHOWING

A postal card received by one of our local merchants from one of their salesmen, reads as follows: The Grayling Band certainly showed up fine, and your community may well feel proud of having such a representative body of musicians. There were 483 bands in this Legion parade. Signed, Hershfield.

SCHOOL NEWS

Frederic School
Enrollment at Frederic Rural Agricultural School shows a decline over last year's figures. The high school itself has increased but many have moved away out of the lower grades to more than offset the number of newcomers. The ninth grade enrollment is exceptionally large this year, there being 21 of the freshmen. There are but 8 in the sophomore class with 10 in each of the Junior and Senior classes.

Elections were held in the various classes Monday afternoon, with the following pupils receiving the honored offices:

Seniors
Pres.—Jack Duncley.
Vice pres.—Bernard Feldhauser.

Sec.—Helen Charron.
Treas.—Ann Sienkiewicz.

Juniors
Pres.—Oral Burke.
Vice pres.—Dorothy Richter.
Sec.—Elsie Weaver.
Treas.—Caroline Welch.

Sophomores

Vice pres.—Elmer Kellogg.
Sec.—June Hodge.
Treas.—Helen Verlinda.

Freshmen
Pres.—Phillip Duncley.
Vice Pres.—Helen Kellogg.
Sec.—Helen Wallace.
Treas.—Doris Leng.

The Athletic Board was also elected and is composed of the following members:
Alan Leng—Manager, elected from student body.

Otis Feldhauser—Senior representative.
Edward Arndt—Junior representative.
Kellis Charron—Sophomore representative.
Beatrice Newberry—Freshman representative.

NEW GASOLINE ANNOUNCED
FOR 1938 AUTOMOBILES

Anticipating the fuel requirements of the 1938 model automobile, Standard Oil Company of Indiana has perfected a new gasoline which will be advertised during the fall and winter in some 1,600 daily and weekly newspapers in the Central West.

The newspaper advertising campaign will begin today, and will feature a typical American newsboy in action. Terse copy in bold type will be used to present the facts about the fuel.

According to the announcements, this new gasoline will give faster starting, longer mileage, more power and has a higher anti-knock quality. No increase in price is contemplated.

Frederic Notes

Mrs. Evelina Allen (nee Barber), and son of Big Bay are visiting in town for a couple of weeks.

Supervisor Duncley was called to Corunna by the sudden death of his brother, Orville Duncley. Mr. Duncley was traveling in a car with two other gentlemen, when they were struck by a Grand Trunk freight train at the south city limits of Corunna, and all three men were killed instantly.

Wm. Leng is doing a fine job of remodeling his restaurant, by the addition of a cement foundation and new front.

liquidate our debt of gratitude today only by renewing in our hearts love and affection for our beloved country; homage, reverence and filial obedience to her laws and institutions.

I have the honor to be,
Your humble servant,
(Rev.) James H. Moloney,
Pastor St. Mary's Church,
Grayling, Michigan.

Sept. 27, 1937

Mr. James McDonnell,
Postmaster,
Grayling, Michigan

Dear Sir:
It is with glowing pride that the cornerstone for a new postoffice for the City of Grayling is to be laid Tuesday, September 28th. This distinctly marks an advancement in the ever-forward march of our fine city.

It also indicates continued confidence in the stability and growth of our city, and could only come about because of a substantial growth in the volume of postal business in our city.

You and your postoffice assistants deserve great credit for your efforts in securing the designation of this fine new edifice. On behalf of the citizens of Grayling we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to you and to the U. S. Postoffice administration for this fine community gift.

Yours very sincerely,
Grayling Chamber of Commerce
By Royal A. Wright,
Acting President.

To the Citizens of Grayling:
Grayling Post 106, the American Legion, Department of Michigan, congratulates you on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of this postoffice building. The completion of this building will bring to a realization the hopes and efforts and dreams of the citizens of this community.

We of the American Legion are pledged to service to our community, state and nation. This building is dedicated to a like service and we hope that we may always be as steadfast in our purpose.

We cannot foresee whether riches or poverty may be the lot of our community in the years to come. Future generations will accept the convenience of this building as a simple every day fact. But we today are deeply conscious of the fact that the completion of this building marks a mile post in the development of Grayling.

We ask you who read this next to pause, remember and consider the ideals of Americanism for which our great Legion stands and for which we fought in the great war. We ask you to respect and protect the institutions of this country as we have done.

Grayling Post 106, The American Legion.
Adjutant, Earl Hewitt.
Judge Advocate, Charles E. Moore.

To the Citizens of Grayling:
The Drum & Bugle Corps of Grayling Post 106, The American Legion congratulates you on the erection of this Postoffice building. We hope that the future citizens of this community will appreciate it as much as we do.

We have always received the full support and co-operation of our community and we have found it a pleasant and congenial place in which to live. We urge the future citizens of Grayling to follow this spirit in their endeavors to make a better city.

Grayling Post 106, The American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps.
Alvin N. LaChapelle, president.
Charles E. Moore, secretary.

To Winter Sports of the Future:
Our Winter sports activities of today are typical of the spirit of our citizens in promoting the community in which we live. We serve without expectation of financial reward. Our pay comes from the realization of a task well done and from the recreation and pleasure we may be able to bring to others.

We believe that we have the ideal place in Michigan for the development of Winter Sports and we trust that you of the future shall carry on. Should our efforts of today seem small to you, may we point out that our obstacles are large.

Grayling Winter Sports, Inc.
Charles E. Moore, president.
Emil Giegling, secretary.

September 1st, 1937
Mr. James McDonnell,
Postmaster,
My dear Mr. McDonnell:

The laying of the cornerstone of the new postoffice building to be erected in Grayling, must be a happy occasion for you and for all the good citizens of Grayling. It successfully culminates your long efforts to secure this generous gift of the Federal Government, and it brings to the people of Grayling a beautiful edifice to adorn their city, and it will aid in rendering greater and better postal service to accommodate their ever increasing needs.

It is also pleasing to me, as

State Representative of the Presque Isle District of Michigan, to participate with you in memorializing this happy event, and to observe this munificence of good government, and especially this effort of our Democratic Administration to extend the fruits of good government directly to the common and everyday needs of the people in all communities of our great nation, whether large or small.

The object of government must always be that of service to the people governed and the betterment of their economic, social and cultural life. This object is well reflected in this effort of our Democratic Administration to improve the postal service, and to enhance the aesthetic and artistic development of your city.

I extend my warmest greetings to the people of Grayling. They are greatly indebted to you, and you are to be congratulated in securing this fine gift for them after so many years of untiring effort.

Very Sincerely Yours,
Frank P. Buza.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

The Probate Court for the County of Crawford.

At a session of said court, held at the probate office in the City of Grayling in said county, on the 28th day of September, A. D. 1937.

Present: Hon. Charles E. Moore, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of James W. Sorenson, deceased. Herluf Sorenson, administrator of said estate having filed in said court his petition, praying for license to sell the interest of said estate in certain real estate therein described, at private sale.
